

Savannah- Chatham Historic Site and Monument Commission Historical Marker Application Guidelines and Criteria for Evaluation

The Savannah-Chatham County Historic Site and Monument Commission reviews all historical markers on public property and all markers visible from a public right-of-way in any local historic district with the following exceptions: cornerstones, names of buildings and dates of construction cut into any masonry surface and made permanent and integral part of the building, and house plaques provided by Historic Savannah Foundation, Inc.

The Georgia Historical Society (GHS) manages its own marker program. Call 912.651.2128 for further information on their program.

A marker is defined as any permanent or semi-permanent plaque with text embedded in the ground, mounted to a structure, or erected on a freestanding pole for the primary purpose of informing the public about a historical event, place or person. If a marker is physically attached to a structure, the marker and structure operate independently.

Refer to the Markers, Monuments, and Public Art Master Plan and Guidelines for the City of Savannah available at www.thempc.org or the Metropolitan Planning Commission (110 East State Street) for more information.

Theme:

- The proposed theme should have direct local relevance to the history and development of Chatham County.
- The level of significance should be high enough to warrant a public presence and not have been sufficiently commemorated elsewhere in the County.
- The theme should reflect a larger connection to the community as a whole, and not only to one distinct group.
- Commemorated events should have enduring historical significance and have occurred over 50 years ago.
- Commemorated persons should have enduring historical significance and have been dead at least 25 years. Living persons should not be commemorated.
- There should be significant documented evidence (written or oral) of the commemorated event, person, or place.

Site:

- The marker should not cause overcrowding of the site.
- The marker should not damage or disturb existing established vegetation on the site or require the removal or alteration of existing above or below ground utilities.
- The proposed site should not be utilized for special events on a regular basis which the marker would disrupt.
- The proposed site should not be prone to frequent automobile accidents which could damage the marker.
- The proposed site should be visible and accessible from a public right-of-way.
- The proposed site should be easy to maintain.
- Installation of the marker should not require the alteration or removal of existing signage.
- Installation of the marker should not significantly affect automobile traffic sight lines.
- Installation of the marker should not detract from the design of the overall site.
- Installation of the marker should not require the removal or alteration of existing sidewalks.

- A marker should be erected in as close proximity to the site to which it is related as possible and be clearly visible from a public right-of-way.
- Markers commemorating an event should be sited within 100 feet of the event site and adjacent to the nearest public-right-of-way.
- Markers commemorating a person should be sited where that person was born, lived, died, or performed some act of enduring significance and adjacent to the nearest public right-of-way.
- A marker commemorating a place, such as a significant piece of architecture, should be located within 100 feet of the place and adjacent to the nearest public right-of-way.

Design:

- Markers may be mounted on a freestanding pole, wall-mounted, or embedded in the ground.
- Markers on a freestanding pole should be the standard GHS Marker style: two-sided, cast aluminum with a 30" x 42" plate size. The shape should match the GHS marker shape. The marker should have a black background with white, silver, or gold text.
- Markers not erected through the GHS program shall not bear the GHS or state seal.
- Markers should be made of an enduring, non-corroding material and should be considered permanent and designed accordingly.

Text:

- Text should be created in a manner that, to the extent possible, prevents fading and erosion.
- Except the marker title, the marker text should be not more than 1" in height, and not less than ½".
- Text should be well-researched and based on historically accurate, documented facts.
- Text should accurately and effectively convey to the reader the desired message.
- Quotations should be noted accordingly and permission from the appropriate authority received.
- Text should avoid offensive, obscene, or inflammatory language.

Escrow Payment:

- All markers erected on public property will require an Escrow Payment, to be determined by the Mayor and Alderman, and to be submitted prior to construction and installation of the marker.

Installation:

- The installation of a marker on an historic building should not damage the historic fabric of the building.
