To Whom it May Concern:

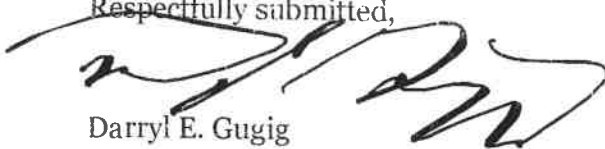

I am writing to express my support for the application for a parking variance to permit Troupial on the Fly to operate at 817 E. 70th Street with only two off-street parking spaces provided.

I am a regular customer of Troupial and have been since it opened. I think they have the best cappuccino in the United States. My typical visit lasts about 15 minutes and I have never, in over a hundred trips, had any difficulty finding a place to park my car.

Troupial is a well-run business and it would be a shame if it were unable to continue to operate at this location because of the zoning code's parking requirements when experience shows that parking is not a problem in this part of town.

Respectfully submitted,

Darryl E. Gugig

Troupial is a unique, delicious and delightful part of Savannah. It only takes a few minutes to grab coffee and breakfast or lunch, and adds another option to a neighborhood filled with hungry workers!

Please allow people to park for the short time it takes to patronize Troupial.

City of Savannah,

I am writing this letter to express what Troupial On The Fly's new location at 817 E 70th st. Means to me. Since they opened their doors in the medical arts district earlier this year, they have become my happy place to stop by on errand days. There are very few quality coffee shops in that area, and this one has become my favorite one. It is convenient and easy to access thanks to the ample amount of street parking and the parking lot directly across from it. Their service is excellent, always friendly, yet fast. The space brightens up the area with their simple landscaping, and is inviting to all that drive by. I've noticed it is a very popular spot for the doctors and employees in the nearby buildings, and it is beautiful to witness how the staff remembers their regulars names and orders. Not many places in savannah offer this quality of service, and I hope this letter of support makes the city realize this place and its accommodations are great just the way they currently are.

Warm regards

Hello,

I'm emailing in support of Troupial on the Fly. We need to help small businesses that are adding value to our community. Please allow this wonderful business to continue to operate. They have signed an agreement to utilize the 40 parking spaces lot across from this business. Their business model focuses on quick service and most customers aren't staying for lengthy periods of time. There are so many working folks that value this spot to get a quick meal and coffee on their lunch breaks or to start their day.

I appreciate your help in keeping this small business going, it's what makes America great is supporting local small businesses. It's part of what being a community is all about.

Thank you,

To whom it may concern,

Please accept this letter as public support for Troupial On The Fly to continue business operations at their current location. As you know, their quick service model provides the city of Savannah not only some of the most unique and delicious offerings, but also means parking is essentially a non issue for their space. We would be incredible disappointed to lose this business as it adds value to us personally as well as the community as a whole.

To whom it may concern,

My name is Niya. I'm a Savannah local for about four years now and one of the reasons I chose to move to Savannah from South Dakota is because of the number of small businesses that the city offers. One of the small businesses that I have grown to love is Troupial.

I was unable to visit their former location, but I love their new location on E. 70th Street. I work in the downtown area and when I need a coffee or a quick lunch, there's no convenient parking available for me to stop and run in downtown without risking a parking ticket. So, I frequent Troupial on the Fly. I can park, place my order, and leave within five to 15 minutes usually. This is SO convenient for me.

I'd much rather support a small business who makes wonderful food and excellent coffee with care rather than grabbing lunch at a drive through. After all, small businesses make Savannah special. Without them, it wouldn't have the same magic.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Niya Broveak

Troupial Parking

Hello,

Troupial has been an amazing addition to the neighborhood. Their food is unlike any other I've had in Savannah (a place I've called home for nearly 15 years). Having parking available nearby would be extremely convenient as my young children love their arepas and pastries and would prove to be safer for us to get in and out of my car. I have seen folks fly down 70th street do not feel safe parking there while needing to navigate getting my kids out and to the curb.

Thank you for your time and attention.

Hello

I'm emailing in regards to the parking issue that the city of Savannah has been having with Troupial on the Fly's parking. This is my favorite coffee shop and I love the atmosphere! I've never had an issue with their parking even when they're busy and I've always been able to get my food and leave so that another spot is available for the next person.

It's frustrating to hear that the city of Savannah is focusing on this issue when there are many other businesses with less parking/capacity issues. I hope that this notice is removed so that I can enjoy the best coffee in Savannah!

Parking at Troupial

From: Alison Cohen

To: Majo Laprea

Date: Sun, Oct 11, 2026, 8:35 PM

Hi,

Web

Hi,

As a longtime customer, I am writing to advocate for establishing a designated parking lot across the street. My family loves visiting Troupial, especially given our dietary needs, but navigating the current parking situation with two young children is challenging. Due to neighboring businesses, street parking is consistently congested, and my car was previously sideswiped while parked on a street not far from this area.

A dedicated off-street parking lot would make visits significantly safer, less stressful, and more accessible for families in our community. Thank you for considering this request.

Best regards,

Ali Cohen

I've never experienced an issue with parking and I am in this area at least 2-3 times a week. This would be a devastating loss for the growing community if Troupial were gone.

Dear City of Savannah Board Members,

I'm writing to show my support for Troupial and their parking variance request.

Troupial is one of our favorite local coffee shops! We love stopping by for coffee and food, and the staff is always so friendly and welcoming. It's such a wonderful little spot that brings something special to our community.

As a customer, I've always found our visits to be quick and convenient. I appreciate having a locally owned business like Troupial in Savannah, and I would hate to see parking requirements create challenges for a business that adds so much to the neighborhood.

Small businesses like Troupial are what make Savannah special, and I truly hope the city will consider approving their request so they can continue serving our community.

Hope you are doing well today! I am writing on behalf and in regard to one of our favorite local Savannah coffee shops and bakeries - Troupial. Troupial is an incredible (and may we add delicious) small business we love and are so happy to support in Savannah.

They are such an asset to the neighborhood and community and it saddens me the possibility of them having to shut their doors. Please do not let this happen!

Parking is never an issue. The in and out, quick structure and service of Troupial is so thoughtfully planned, convenient and efficient and shouldn't be an issue. Troupial is an asset and adds so much sunshine to that part of town and to Savannah in general. Please do not let another small and amazing, locally owned and operated business close its doors. Savannah is starting to lose its magical and soul because of it.

We love and support!

PLEASE APPROVE Troupial's Parking Variance! They are a huge asset to our local community in the Medical Arts District and Savannah as a whole. Please help keep our friends business alive and well! Parking is never an issue here! The loss of this business would affect the community more negatively than the loss of 8 mandated parking spots that we DON'T NEED!

Please also consider this situation and think about reducing or eliminating parking mandates across the city! They are only hindering or completely eliminating small business opportunities in Savannah! These types of businesses are the backbone of community and what makes our neighborhoods great!

Letter of Support for Troupial's Parking Variance Request

To Whom It May Concern,

I'm writing to express my support for Troupial's request for a parking variance in Savannah's Medical Arts community.

Troupial is a wonderful small business and a welcome addition to the neighborhood. Businesses like Troupial help make Savannah special by offering quality products, friendly service, and a personal experience for customers.

I understand that Troupial has an agreement allowing its customers to use the 40-space parking lot across from the shop, along with the street parking available nearby. Because Troupial is a quick-service business, most customers are only there briefly to pick up their orders.

I hope the board will consider the business's efforts to provide parking and the positive contribution Troupial makes to the community. I fully support its parking variance request and hope it is approved.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

City of Savannah

To Whom it May Concern,

Please accept this letter of support for the small business Troupial On The Fly. I have been a patron of this wonderful establishment for several years and followed them from their original location to the Medical Arts neighborhood. My daughter Noland and I were so happy when they finally opened again!

The ability to order ahead and carry-out is very convenient. Because of their new location it is quick and easy to stop and pick up food going to- or from- appointments or home. I do also appreciate having the ability to sit outside and enjoy the pleasant atmosphere they have created. Medical Arts is a busy commercial zone, so having a little green space like this is a great benefit to people who live and work in the area. Troupial offers both convenience and the unique opportunity for a moment of fresh air to its patrons.

In either case, I usually find parking right out front and have never experienced vehicle congestion around this business or difficulty finding a parking space either on the street or in the adjacent lot.

I hope you will consider this customer testimonial in support of Troupial and allow them to continue serving the Medical Arts community with their delicious food and beverages.

Sincerely,

Good afternoon -

I am writing in support of Troupial in the Medical Arts district. Troupial has some of the best coffee and food in Savannah. There is no other place like it, and the current location fills a gap that would otherwise not exist in that part of town. The customer service is excellent and fast. I usually grab my order to go and am gone within 10 minutes. Whenever I am there, the street parking is plentiful.

Please grant the parking variance and do not stifle an important and high quality small business in the area because of unnecessary bureaucracy and red tape.

I have lived in Savannah for almost 6 years, and it would be a huge loss to this community if Troupial was forced to close because of parking.

Letter of Support for Turpial

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to express my sincere support for Turpial and its request for a parking variance. Turpial is much more than a place to enjoy good food and coffee; it is a meaningful part of our community and a place that makes people feel welcome, connected, and at home.

As a Venezuelan, I deeply appreciate what Turpial represents. It celebrates my culture through the food and flavors I grew up with, sharing a piece of Venezuela with Savannah and allowing people from different backgrounds to experience and appreciate our traditions. It makes me proud to see a business that honors where I come from while bringing so much happiness to others.

My connection to Turpial is also personal because my sister worked there. I have enjoyed eating there myself, and every visit has given me a comforting sense of home. Some of my friends have also experienced a little piece of my home and culture through Turpial. That is something truly special: a small business that creates meaningful connections between people through food, hospitality, and shared experiences.

Beyond its cultural significance, Turpial contributes positively to the community by offering delicious food and coffee, creating a welcoming environment, and giving people another reason to come together and support local businesses. Places like Turpial help make Savannah's community more vibrant, diverse, and inclusive.

I respectfully ask that you consider the value Turpial brings to our community when reviewing its parking variance request. I believe this business deserves the opportunity to continue growing and serving its customers. I hope it can remain a place where people can enjoy wonderful food, experience Venezuelan culture, and feel at home.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Thanks so much for an excellent cappuccino and delicious empanadas. You also have wonderful taste in music and I appreciated the low volume that made conversation with my wife easy and enjoyable.

Three cyclists rode in while we were enjoying On the Fly, always a good sign of a true community resource. We were here picking up prescriptions at Compounding Solutions and replacement parts at Audiology and Hearing Aid Services and Troupial On the Fly provided us a brilliant oasis in the middle of a whole variety of health service providers.

We also appreciated the easy parking we found across the street. We may have parked 'illegally' in the Savannah Medical Center parking lot however we figured given that we could see our car that we would not have a problem and we did not. It would be great if the Savannah Medical Center welcomed Troupial as I have no doubt their clients would appreciate the partnership and parking appears plentiful.

A great experience — excellent service, delicious coffee and mango juice, savory empanadas and all served in fully recyclable containers. Bien hecho Troupial, mil gracias, saludos, Eldredge

To whom it may concern,

I have been a dedicated patron of Troupial dating back to when they were still in the Starland District.

Troupial is fast, friendly and delicious. They provide convenient and quality coffee and food in an area of Savannah where that is severely lacking.

Since the opening of their current location, I have consistently frequented their establishment anywhere from 2 - 4 times a week! I never once have had an issue with parking - not once. Because of the window service, I'm in and out within 10mins, but even if they took longer, it wouldn't matter because parking is not an issue!

Please please please do not do anything that will take this wonderful establishment away. The Troupial team is an incredible one who have created a wonderful gem in the middle of Savannah. Doing anything to pause or hinder their success would be nothing short of criminal.

I love you, Troupial. And there is nothing wrong with your parking situation!

Hi there-

Banding together with so many others who ADORE Troupial, the owners, and the amazing charm it brings to Savannah. Please consider all the beautiful ways this place is a gift to the neighborhood! So many would be devastated by the shut down of Troupial.

Parking should not be the reason for a shut down!! Go and experience this place and the owners who work so hard to keep it alive!

Dear City of Savannah,

I am Chloe Rivalsky and I am a regular customer of Troupial on the Fly at 817 E 70th Street. I appreciate the easy access and community feel of their location. Their parking accessibility is more than adequate as there is plenty of easy street parking along with a lot across the street. They are a wonderful addition to the block and supported by the many local businesses and medical professionals in the surrounding area. We desperately need to support our small businesses during this time. I would much rather support a local business where my money is supporting our community. I work out at The Collective Savannah next to Troupial and many of our members frequent Troupial after their workout classes. There are never any issues with parking or traffic in this area. Troupial also offers an app where it is easy to place your order ahead of time and it is ready and waiting for you and their model is quick-service.

We love being able to support this small business, and we hope you will continue to allow them to serve this community.

Thank you,

Chloe Rivalsky

Re: Letter of Support for Troupial on the Fly's Parking Variance Request

To the Members of the Board:

My name is Michelle Caudill. I am writing to express my strong support for Troupial's request for a parking variance. As a regular customer and Savannah resident of 18 years, I have seen firsthand how much this business gives to our community. I urge you to approve the request.

Troupial is more than a coffee shop. Its Venezuelan baked goods and arepas are made with a care that is rarely seen these days, and its coffee? The best in Savannah. It is a welcoming place that adds to the city's cultural fabric, bringing the flavors and traditions of Venezuela to the much needed Medical Arts District. Many of us look forward to our visits throughout the week.

Troupial has been a beloved Savannah business for years, and I understand that without approval of this variance, it may be forced to close. Losing it would be a real loss for its loyal customers, for the neighborhood, and for the diversity of Savannah's small-business community.

I respectfully ask that you grant the variance so Troupial can continue to serve and enrich our city. Thank you for your time and for your service to Savannah.

Sincerely,

Re: Application No. 26-004879-ZBA — Parking variance for 817 E 70th Street (Troupial On The Fly)

Dear Members of the Board:

My name is Liliana Vicuna, and I am a regular customer of Troupial On The Fly, located at 817 E 70th Street in Savannah.

I am writing to express my full support for the parking variance requested for this business (Application No. 26-004879-ZBA), which would reduce the required onsite parking spaces from 10 to 2, recognizing the qualifying on-street parking adjacent to the property.

As a customer, I can confirm that street parking near the restaurant is always available and convenient. I have never had difficulty finding parking when visiting. Many of us place our orders in advance through the restaurant's app and only stop briefly to pick them up, so parking demand is minimal and turnover is quick.

Troupial On The Fly is a valued part of our neighborhood — it brings the community together and supports the local economy. I fully support its continued operation at this location.

I respectfully ask the Board to approve this variance so this wonderful local business can keep serving our community.

Sincerely,

Subject: Support for Troupial on the Fly

817 E 70th St, Savannah, GA 31405, United States

Dear City of Savannah,

I'm writing to show my support for Troupial on the Fly and to ask that you please reconsider the decision that could force them to close because of parking requirements.

I really love this coffee shop and what they bring to Savannah. It's a great local business, and it would be such a shame to see them close over something like parking.

As a customer, I've never had an issue finding parking when I visit. I'm always able to find a spot on the street or across the street. Also, this is a grab-and-go coffee shop, not a place where people sit for hours. I'm usually in and out in less than 30 minutes, so I don't need a parking space for very long.

I think it's important to consider how the business actually operates and how customers use it before making a decision that could put them out of business. Small local businesses like this are part of what makes Savannah special, and I would hate to see them lose everything over parking requirements when, from my experience, parking has not been an issue.

I really hope the City will reconsider and give this business a chance to stay open and continue serving the community.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Valentina Lopez

I appreciate having Troupial in the neighborhood and the food, coffee, and welcoming service it offers to the Medical Arts community and surrounding area.

I respectfully ask the City of Savannah to consider the positive impact Troupial has on its customers and the surrounding community.

Hi,

Troupial is an amazing cafe and part of my daily routine. I stop there after going to the gym in the morning. It's a wonderful place in Savannah to grab a quick coffee or bite to eat. They are so friendly and brighten my day. I always suggest for people to stop by while in the area. Small businesses are essential to the fabric of our community. We want them and we want to see the city support them. Please allow this business to stay open and consider how your laws impact true small businesses.

Dear City of Savannah,

My name is Keyther Bernal, and I am a regular customer of Troupial On The Fly at 817 E 70th St. I truly appreciate having them in this location. The space is convenient and welcoming, and the parking is easy to access.

I use their app all the time, which makes ordering very convenient. The service is always incredibly fast, and every visit is a great experience. I love this place and believe it is a valuable part of the Medical Arts community.

I respectfully ask the City to consider my positive experience and the value Troupial On The Fly brings to the community when reviewing matters related to this location.

Dear: City of Savannah

I am writing to you as a frequent customer and resident of Savannah, Ga to express my strong support for Troupial on the fly located at 817 e 70 St.

I recently learned that the city is considering closing this valued establishment due to a perceived lack of dedicated parking space. I respectfully urge the board to review the current arrangement and allow the restaurant to remain open.

While I understand and respect the city's zoning regulations regarding commercial parking, Troupial on the fly has actively resolved this issue by securing a formal shared parking agreement. The neighboring property owner has provided written permission allowing restaurant patrons to use their parking spaces.

This cooperative agreement effectively solves any parking deficit without causing public disruption or traffic issues. Closing a beloved local business that has proactively found a community-minded solution would be a significant loss to our neighborhood. Troupial on the fly provides excellent food, jobs, and a welcoming gathering place that enriches our local economy.

I kindly ask that the city accept the neighbor's written authorization as a valid shared-parking solution, or grant the restaurant the necessary variance to continue operating. Thank you for your time, consideration, and dedication to supporting both city standards and our local small businesses.

Sincerely,
Dulce Noris

Dear City of Savannah,

My name is Cynthia Gary. I live at 610 Maupas Avenue in Baldwin Park. My husband and I are repeat customers of Troupial On the Fly. We have never had an issue with parking on any of our visits, nor have we witnessed any problems. In fact we find it to be one of the easier spots to get in and out of. We love to meet and have a quick lunch or snack. It's so nice to enjoy the fresh air, good food and nice customer service. These cute, really good, quirky kinds of places give Savannah its character and they are becoming fewer and fewer. I love to take visitors. It's always such a surprise for them. I also love to stop by to grab a coffee or matcha to take to friends. They always end up loving Troupial as much as I do.

I understand that they have an agreement with the parking lot across the street concerning parking. I've seen people park there. Please let them stay. We should be doing all we can to support our local businesses. Thank you and I hope you will choose to let them stay at their cute location on 70th.

Sincerely,

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear City of Savannah,

I am glad to share what Troupial On The Fly means to me as a daily customer. I love stopping in for breakfast and a good cup of coffee, and the business has become part of my morning routine. The quick pick-up helps me save time, and the food and coffee are something I genuinely look forward to.

Parking is another reason these stops are so convenient. I have always been able to find a spot right away, without any hassle, which makes it easy to pick up what I need and get on with my day. That kind of convenience matters when time is short.

I also appreciate the friendly customer service. A warm, welcoming stop makes a difference, especially during a busy morning. For people with demanding schedules in Savannah's Medical District, having a convenient place to grab breakfast or coffee during a short break can be especially valuable.

As a customer, I value having a local small business that offers quality, friendly service and a practical option for a busy day. I expect Troupial On The Fly to remain part of my daily routine, and I would be sorry to lose a place I enjoy and rely on.

I respectfully ask that Troupial On The Fly be allowed to continue serving the community. Thank you for taking the time to consider a customer's perspective.

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear Members of the City,

I am writing as a customer who visits Troupial On The Fly a few times a month. It has been a great option when a busy work schedule leaves little time for a meal or when I have only a short break. Having a convenient choice that fits into a limited window is genuinely valuable.

I especially appreciate the combination of good service and the features offered through the app. Together, they make the experience work well for my needs and help me make the most of the time I have. It is reassuring to have an option that feels both helpful and practical during a packed day.

Convenient parking for a quick pick-up stop can also make a real difference. When time is short, being able to park and collect an order without adding unnecessary complications makes the stop easier to fit into a brief break.

For people with demanding schedules in Savannah, including those in the Medical District, a service that accommodates short breaks can be especially useful. Businesses that offer practical ways to make a busy day more manageable contribute value to the community in a very everyday, meaningful way.

I respectfully ask that Troupial On The Fly be allowed to continue serving the community. Thank you for taking the time to consider my experience and for hearing from local customers.

Sincerely,

Aura De Leon

Troupial On The Fly

From: Heather Sueirro
To: Majo Laprea
Date: Thu, Oct 15, 2026, 6:45 AM

To whom it may concern,

My name is Heather Sueirro and I am a born and raised Savannah native located in Pooler, Ga. All of my family of origin, extended family, and close friends live in Savannah and do a lot of business in midtown/Medical Arts. In fact, my child goes to school in the area. I'm a working mom who looks forward to morning drop-offs and a weekly trip to Troupial on the Fly. When I heard there's a risk they may have to close because of parking spaces, I knew I needed to share my insight as a frequent customer and Savannah native. Here's why closing Troupial would be a poor decision:

- as a local, I want to spend local. Tropical allows me to get a taste of something different and new, conveniently, and locally! I'm supporting a women owned, Latina owned, local business that's putting money back into the community. That makes me proud.
- Troupial is a convenient and affordable option in the morning when most of us are on the go. I often find parking right on the side, even though there is a nearly empty parking lot across from the restaurant. The location is well kept and welcoming which is a 180 from most quick casual to-go spots in Savannah
- Medical Arts has its own culture of quick service. Who is staying in that area for more than an hour?
- anyone willing to close Troupial has not had tetras or pastelitos andinos and they are missing out!
- This type of restaurant draws appeal to Medical Arts, a place that is quick service in nature as it is mostly doctors offices or luxury services. It's a superior breakfast and lunch option and has a time frame that fits with the area. It just makes sense as a business.

I've had some great experiences meeting locals and building community in a short time here. Please come up with a solution to allow Troupial to remain open.

To the City of Savannah

Re: Letter of Support for Troupial On The Fly — 817 E. 70th Street

Dear City of Savannah Officials,

I am writing to express my strong support for Troupial On The Fly and to respectfully ask the City to consider a reasonable solution to the parking concerns affecting its location at 817 E. 70th Street, rather than taking action that could jeopardize this valued local business.

When I lived in Savannah, Georgia, I was a customer of Troupial almost every day. I regularly visited its previous location, and my experiences there were consistently exceptional. The owner is outstanding, and the people behind this business are genuinely warm, welcoming, and dedicated to what they do.

The food is absolutely delicious, beautifully presented, and prepared with excellent ingredients. I was always impressed by the care, cleanliness, attention to detail, and high standards I observed in how the food was handled and served. It is the kind of place that earns the loyalty and trust of its customers through quality and genuine hospitality.

Although I frequented the earlier location, I firmly believe the current establishment contributes enormously to Savannah. Independent businesses like Troupial enrich the local community, give residents a welcoming place to gather, and offer visitors an authentic and memorable experience. Losing this business would be a real loss for both local residents and tourists.

I understand that parking and accessibility are important considerations. I hope the City will carefully review the available parking arrangements, including any permission granted by nearby property owners and the accessible street parking in the area, and work collaboratively with the business toward a practical solution. My understanding of these arrangements comes from the public request for support, and I respectfully ask that they be evaluated on their merits.

Please give Troupial On The Fly a fair opportunity to continue serving the Savannah community. This is a business worth supporting and preserving.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Mónica d'Erizans

Re: Letter of Support for Troupial On The Fly

Dear Members of the Savannah Metropolitan Planning Commission,

I am writing to express my support for Troupial On The Fly and to share my consistently positive experiences as a customer of this local establishment.

I have enjoyed visiting Troupial On The Fly for both meals and coffee on numerous occasions, and every experience has been excellent. The food, coffee, and overall atmosphere have made it a wonderful addition to the Savannah community. It is the type of locally owned business that contributes positively to the character and appeal of our city.

I would also like to specifically address the issue of parking. In all of my visits to Troupial On The Fly, parking has never been a problem. I have always been able to find convenient parking and have never experienced any difficulty accessing the establishment. From my personal experience, parking has not presented an inconvenience or negatively affected my visits in any way.

As both a customer and a member of the Savannah community, I believe businesses like Troupial On The Fly deserve our support. My experiences have been exclusively positive, and I hope the Commission will take this perspective into consideration when evaluating matters related to the establishment.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Dear City of Savannah,

I live nearby and visit Troupial On The Fly weekly. I'm writing to share how much I value having this cafe in the neighborhood. It's a great cafe in an area that doesn't have a lot of healthy, quality food to offer, and I appreciate being able to support a local small business while enjoying food and products I feel good about.

The convenient parking makes a difference for quick pick-up stops. Being able to park without a lot of hassle is helpful when I'm stopping by briefly, and it makes the cafe an easy option to return to regularly. For people with demanding schedules in Savannah's Medical District, convenient access to quality food can be especially valuable.

I also appreciate the friendly customer service. A welcoming experience, along with the quality of the food and products, is a big part of why I keep coming back each week.

Troupial/ Parking

Noelia Thompson

Majo Laprea

Thu, Oct 15, 2026, 5:12 PM

To whom it may concern,

My name is Noelia Thompson and I am the daughter of immigrants. My father is Mexican and my mother is Venezuelan. Dad and Mom married in Florida when I was just three years old, and we eventually moved to Savannah, Georgia, to be closer to my grandparents, who are also Venezuelan.

Growing up, I always felt a certain disconnect from my culture. I had a younger brother who struggled with speech because he was learning both English and Spanish. When we started school in Savannah, we were told to give up one language to make learning easier for him. Spanish, the language my parents spoke, became something I had to find my way back to on my own.

As I grew older, I worked in restaurants where Spanish was spoken, and I often felt embarrassed. To some, I looked white. To others, I didn't speak enough Spanish, know enough about the food, or understand enough of the culture to feel like I truly belonged. There were foods I had never tried and dishes I didn't know how to make. I sometimes felt like I was missing a part of myself that everyone else seemed to understand.

Then I found Troupial.

Troupial is more than a Venezuelan restaurant to me. Yes, they have incredible coffee and some of the best arepas I've ever had, but what makes Troupial special goes far beyond the food. It is the people. It is the warmth. It is the feeling of walking into a place and realizing you don't have to prove that you're Venezuelan enough, Mexican enough, or Hispanic enough to belong.

For the first time, I felt like I could embrace that part of myself without feeling ashamed of the parts I was still learning. Troupial gave me a place where I could feel connected to my heritage, even if my journey to understanding it looked different from someone else's. The people there are as hardworking, welcoming, and genuine as anyone could hope to meet, and the love they put into what they do is something you can feel.

I know that parking is a concern, and I understand that these issues need to be addressed. But I sincerely ask that the people making this decision consider what would be lost if Troupial were forced to close its doors. A restaurant can be replaced on a street, but the sense of belonging it creates in a community is not so easily replaced.

There are people like me who grew up with immigrant parents and spent years feeling like they weren't enough of either culture. There are people who are still learning their language, reconnecting with their roots, and trying to understand where they fit. Places like Troupial remind us that we don't have to be perfect at our heritage to be proud of it. We don't have to speak perfect Spanish, know every traditional dish, or have grown up surrounded by every custom to deserve a place at the table.

Please don't take that place away from us.

I ask that you consider every possible solution to the parking concerns before making a decision that could permanently close Troupial's doors. Please consider the people behind this business, the community they have built, and the people who may not have another place where they feel as welcomed and understood.

To some, Troupial may be just another restaurant. To me, it is a reminder that even when you feel disconnected from your roots, there is still a place where you can find them again.

Please give Troupial the opportunity to stay.

Sincerely,

Noelia Thompson

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear City of Savannah,

I live nearby and stop by Troupial On The Fly a few times a month. It has become a convenient local option, and I appreciate the friendly customer service each time I visit. The staff's smiles make the experience especially welcoming.

Its location near the Medical District is a real benefit. For people with demanding schedules in the area, having a nearby place to stop can make a busy day a little easier. I also value being able to support a small business in my community, rather than treating that support as an afterthought.

Convenient parking matters for quick pick-up stops, too. Being able to park without making a simple visit complicated helps customers fit a stop into their day and makes the location more useful to people nearby.

These may seem like small things individually, but together they make a difference: welcoming service, a convenient location, and a chance to support a local business. I am glad Troupial On The Fly is part of the neighborhood, and I hope others can continue to enjoy what it brings to the community.

I respectfully ask that Troupial On The Fly be allowed to continue serving Savannah. Thank you for taking the time to consider my experience and for your attention to this local business.

Sincerely,

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear Members of the City,

I am writing as an occasional customer who appreciates having Troupial On The Fly as part of Savannah's local business community. The food is good, and the quick pick-up option makes it easier to get what I need without spending extra time. That convenience matters in a busy day, and it can be especially valuable for people with demanding schedules in Savannah's Medical District.

Convenient parking also makes a difference when I am stopping by for a quick pick-up. Being able to park nearby and get on with my day makes the visit simpler and more practical.

I value the chance to support a local small business that offers something distinctive.

Troupial On The Fly is a unique business that adds to Savannah's culture, food, and choices. Having different local options enriches the community, and this business contributes its own character to the city.

I hope the City will allow Troupial On The Fly to continue serving the community. Thank you for considering the perspective of a customer and for recognizing the value that local small businesses bring to Savannah.

Sincerely,

Brittany Porth

Savannah, October 2026

To the City of Savannah,

As a regular customer of Troupial, I am writing to express my support for this small local business and my hope that the city will find a way for it to remain open.

I visit Troupial at least twice a week. Sometimes, their coffee is all I need to make my morning a little better. It has become part of my routine, one of those little things that brings comfort and joy to an ordinary day. That might sound simple, but I think those are exactly the kinds of experiences that make a city feel like home.

As a customer, I can honestly say that the lack of dedicated parking has never been an issue for me. It has never stopped me from visiting, and it has never made me think twice about supporting this business. I go because I love their coffee, and the experience is worth it.

I understand that the city has regulations to consider, but I hope that a parking concern does not become the reason a small business loses the opportunity to serve its community. There has to be room for a reasonable solution that allows Troupial to continue operating.

Savannah's charm comes from its people, its neighborhoods, and the unique local businesses that give it character. We cannot keep saying we want to support small businesses while allowing the challenges they face to push them out of our community.

Please consider the customers who show up week after week, the people who genuinely value this business, and the little part of our daily lives that Troupial has become. For me, it's my coffee at least twice a week and sometimes the simple thing I need to start my morning right.

I respectfully ask the City of Savannah to work with Troupial rather than force it to close. Please find a solution that allows this business to stay and continue being part of our community.

Sincerely,
Cristina Carrascal

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear Members of the City of Savannah,

As an occasional customer of Troupial On The Fly, I appreciate having a local place I can visit for small bites and drinks. I enjoy stopping in after my yoga classes or when I happen to be in the area. It is a welcome option for those moments when I want something to eat or drink without making a bigger outing of it.

Being able to park conveniently for a quick stop adds to that experience. When I am fitting a visit into the time I have available, a straightforward stop matters. That convenience makes it easier to drop in, pick up what I came for, and continue with the rest of my day.

I also value the quality of the food and products, along with the friendly customer service I have received. These parts of the experience make me glad to return when I am nearby.

Just as importantly, I appreciate the opportunity to support a small local business in Savannah. Businesses like this contribute to the character and choices of our community, and I value being able to support one through my visits.

I respectfully ask that Troupial On The Fly be allowed to continue serving the community. Thank you for taking the time to consider my experience and for hearing from a customer who appreciates this business.

Sincerely,

To Whom it May Concern,

I have been coming to the coffee shop On The Fly frequently over the last year. I frequent this area for the other businesses, so it's always a stop on my list when coming over here! The food and drinks are great and the staff is absolutely lovely and always helpful.

As far as the parking situation is concerned, I have never had trouble parking in the area or been hindered by other people street parking in the area.

All in all I don't want to see a small business fall because of this parking requirement that has been deemed a "problem". It has not been and this business has slowly made a name for itself. I know this problem can be resolved without hurting a small business.

Thank you for your time.

Hello,

We have heard that Troupial is having trouble with the city over their parking at the shop. We have never had any issues with parking and they have 40 parking spaces in a lot across the street that they are allowed to use.

Please allow them to stay in business and not give them a hard time over a non issue.

Thanks,

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear City of Savannah,

I am writing as a customer who visits Troupial On The Fly a few times a month. I have followed Troupial through its different forms over the years, and I greatly appreciate what it brings to the community.

The quick pick-up saves valuable time, and the food is consistently something I value. The friendly customer service makes each visit welcoming, while the convenient location near the Medical District makes it an especially useful option for people with busy work schedules or only a short break. For those of us managing demanding schedules in that part of Savannah, having a local place that makes a quick stop practical can make a real difference.

Convenient parking is another important part of the experience. Being able to park for a quick pick-up helps make a short stop genuinely manageable, rather than adding another complication to a busy day.

I also appreciate the opportunity to support a local small business. Majo's attention to detail and community-oriented focus have stood out to me throughout my time visiting. She has been a fantastic part of the Savannah community, and I would be very sad to see Troupial lost again. Its service, welcoming customer care, and convenient role in the neighborhood are all reasons I hope it can remain here.

I respectfully ask that Troupial On The Fly be allowed to continue serving the community. Thank you for taking the time to consider the perspective of a customer.

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear Members of the City of Savannah,

As someone who lives nearby, I'm glad to have Troupial On The Fly in our community. I value having a local small business close to home, and I appreciate the quality of its food and products as well as the friendly customer service. Those details make a difference and give me another reason to support a neighborhood business.

Convenient parking is especially helpful when I'm making a quick stop to pick up something. Being able to park without making a brief visit feel complicated is a practical benefit, and it makes the location more useful for nearby residents.

The business's convenient location near Savannah's Medical District is also meaningful. For people with demanding schedules in the district, having a nearby place to stop can make a busy day a little easier. It is valuable to have local options that serve both the surrounding neighborhood and people who spend their days in this part of Savannah.

We love our local small businesses, and Troupial On The Fly is the kind of business that adds value to the community through its convenient location, quality offerings, and welcoming service. I hope the City will allow Troupial On The Fly to continue serving Savannah and the people who live and work nearby. Thank you for taking the time to consider a customer's perspective and for supporting the local businesses that make our community stronger.

Sincerely,

Re: Customer experience with Troupial On The Fly

Dear Members of the City of Savannah,

As an occasional customer, I appreciate having Troupial On The Fly as a convenient option for a delicious meal. It makes it easier for people who work and want something satisfying, especially when a busy schedule leaves little time to spare. Being able to order ahead through the app helps me plan a quick pick-up and save time.

Convenient parking is another important part of making a quick stop work well. When I have only a short break, being able to park conveniently for pick-up makes the visit more manageable and helps me get back to the rest of my day.

The location near Savannah's Medical District is valuable for people working in the area, including those with demanding schedules or only a short break to get a meal. Troupial offers a practical option when time is limited, without losing sight of the quality of its food. I also value the friendly customer service, which makes the experience welcoming.

I am glad to support a local small business that helps make everyday meals more convenient for people in Savannah. Ordering ahead, quick pick-up, accessible parking, a convenient location, quality food, and friendly service all contribute to an option that fits well into a busy workday.

I respectfully ask that Troupial On The Fly be allowed to continue serving the Savannah community. Thank you for taking the time to consider my experience and perspective.

Dear Members of the City of Savannah,

As a customer who visits Troupial On The Fly a few times a month, I am glad to share why I value having this local business in our community. It is a welcome option when I want good food without spending extra time on the stop.

The quick pick-up is especially helpful. Saving time matters in a busy day, and an efficient visit makes it easier to fit a meal into a demanding schedule. This kind of convenience can be particularly valuable for people working or managing responsibilities in Savannah's Medical District, where time may be limited.

Parking convenience also matters for a quick pick-up. Being able to park for a short stop and collect an order without turning it into a lengthy errand helps make the experience practical. That ease adds to the value of choosing a local business when time is tight.

Just as important, the food is delicious, and I appreciate its quality. The friendly customer service makes each visit welcoming. Supporting a small local business is meaningful to me, and I am pleased to do so while enjoying food I genuinely like.
